Form 990 - Organization's Mission

To eradicate slavery and human trafficking in our lifetime. We help entire villages free themselves from slavery and reach sustainable freedom. We also shine a light on the horror as well as the hope, the indomitable human spirit that stops at nothing to reach freedom, so that others are inspired to join in creating a slavery-free world.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - First Accomplishment

Schools4Freedom:

In 2020, Voices4Freedom helped 721 additional people to free themselves from slavery, bringing the organization's total to 3,755. The Schools4Freedom program operated 22 transitional schools in Uttar Pradesh, India this year (with 14 schools having already graduated their children from the program and integrated them into the government schools). Each transitional school is the first step towards freedom for their village, in which 100 - 200 people are enslaved by one slaveholder. These transitional schools have a curriculum designed specifically to ensure that each child is caught up to grade level within 3 years. All Adults were empowered through rights and skills training, assistance in accessing existing government programs, and gaining a regular and reliable income so that they never fall prey to slavery again. We also started initial research in support of expanding anti-slavery work to an entire administrative block in Uttar Pradesh.
